DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Your Personal Data – What is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

2. Who are We?

We are Ferring Roads Scheme Association (FRSA) and we are the data controller (contact details below). This means we decide how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do We Process Your Personal Data?

The FRSA complies with its obligations under the GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure; and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes:

- to enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our Constitution;
- to administer membership records;
- to promote the interests of the Association;
- to manage our volunteers;
- to maintain our own accounts and records;
- to inform you of news and activities.

4. What is the Legal Basis for Processing Your Personal Data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about proposed and completed work, and for invoicing.
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body without a political, philosophical, religious, or trade union aim provided that:
  - the processing relates only to members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
  - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing Your Personal Data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will be shared only with other members of the FRSA Committee for purposes connected with the FRSA. We will share your data with third parties outside of the FRSA only with your consent.

6. How Long do we Keep Your Personal Data?

We keep data on members whilst it is current. Invoices and other associated paperwork are kept for up to six years, after the calendar year to which they relate, as required by current legislation.

7. Your Rights and Your Personal Data

Unless subject to an exemption under GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data.

- The right to request a copy of your personal data as held by the FRSA.
- The right to request that the FRSA corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date.
- The right to request your personal data is erased when it is no longer necessary for the FRSA to retain such data.
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing of your data at any time.
- The right to request that the data controller provides the data subject with his/her personal data and, where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller (known as the right to data portability) where applicable. [Only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means.]
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing.
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, where applicable. [Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics]
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further Processing

If the FRSA wishes to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to processing your data and we will set out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

9. Contact Details

To exercise all relevant rights, queries or complaints please, in the first instance, contact the FRSA Chairman at [insert contact details].
